In the event that you apply for life assurance or a pension, we may collect and process information on your health. You will be asked for your consent to process this type of personal information.

2. What personal information do we collect about you?

The information we hold about you can vary depending on the products and services you use. This includes personal information which you give to us when you are applying for a product or service, personal information we collect automatically (for instance when you request a quote on the website) or personal information we receive from other sources. The personal information we collect about you may include:

- home address, date of birth, full name, place of birth, identification documents, details of income and source of wealth, nationality and tax identification number;
- information obtained from third parties such as business information providers;
- details of employment status and occupation;
- information that we gather from publicly available sources such as biographies held on the Internet;
- information we learn about you from the way you use our products and services and use our website.

3. How is the personal information collected?

We collect personal information from a number of sources, including:

- information we receive directly from you or from a person acting on your behalf;
- information that we gather from publicly available sources such as the Internet.

4. Cookies

We may obtain information about your general Internet usage by using a cookie file which is stored on your browser or the hard drive of your computer. Cookies are small pieces of information, stored in simple text files, placed on your computer by a website. Cookies can be read by the website on your subsequent visits so that you can access information in a faster and more efficient way. The information stored in a cookie may relate to your browsing habits on the web page, or a unique identification number so that the website can "remember" you on your return visit. Generally speaking, cookies do not contain personal data from which you can be identified, unless you have separately furnished such information to the website. Some of the cookies we use are essential for the website to operate. For more information on how to manage cookies, including how to disable cookies please visit: www.aboutcookies.org.

5. How do we use personal information for direct marketing?

From time to time, we would like to make you aware of other products and services that we offer which may be of interest to you. We can do this by using some of the personal information we hold about you. You have a right not to receive such information. You can make changes to your marketing preferences at any time by contacting us at the address below.

6. Who do we share your personal information with?

In order to provide our services and to comply with legal obligations imposed on us, we may share your information with trusted third parties who perform important functions for us based on our instructions and applying appropriate confidentiality and security measures. For example, we may share your personal information with the following third parties:

- (a) Lenders, Insurance and Assurance and Investment companies we have agencies with in the process of carrying out your request for a product or service
- (b) Legal, financial, investment, medical and other professional advisors in the process of carrying out your request for a product or service
- (c) any sub-contractors, agents or service providers engaged by the Segraves Ltd Trading as Ger Brady Financial Services (including their employees, directors and officers), such as back up and server hosting providers, IT software and maintenance providers, document storage providers and suppliers of other back office functions;

We may also share your personal information with any third parties to whom you have instructed us to share your information with.

We are required to cooperate by law or otherwise through a legal process with Irish and EU regulatory and enforcement bodies such as the Central Bank of Ireland, an Garda Síochána, the courts, fraud prevention agencies or other bodies. The people and organisations that we may share your personal information with may be located in a country that does not have data protection laws which provide the same level of protection as the laws in Ireland. Some countries already have adequate protection for personal information under their applicable laws. In other countries safeguards will be applied to maintain the same level of protection as the country in which the products and services are supplied. These safeguards may be contractual agreements with the overseas recipient, or it may require the recipient to subscribe to international data protection frameworks. For more information about the European Commission's decisions on the adequacy of the protection of personal information in countries outside the EEA, please visit: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection_en

7. Is providing your personal information obligatory?

We are unable to enter into or administer the relationship with you without some personal information about you. In cases where providing your personal information is optional, we will make this clear. In particular it is not mandatory that our clients to sign up to receive marketing communications.
